

INTERNET PRIVACY POLICY

Thank you for visiting Bronco Federal Credit Union's website and reviewing our Internet privacy statement. It is our goal to limit the collection and storage of personal information necessary for us to administer our business, provide you with quality service and offer you opportunities we think might be of interest. We do not disclose any personal information collected from our web site to unaffiliated organizations.

To provide you with broader access to additional information, Bronco Federal Credit Union's website also contains links to other sites. To provide you with easy access to information, Bronco Federal Credit Union may provide links to other websites such as mortgage companies, insurance companies, and government agencies. These links are provided as a convenience to our members. We do not guarantee or endorse any of the content in these links, and the Credit Union does not represent either the third party or the member if the two enter into a transaction. The privacy and security policies on these linked websites may differ from those practiced by Bronco Federal Credit Union. We encourage you to read the privacy policies of all websites you visit, especially before providing any personal non-public information. While we hope these organizations join us in respecting your privacy, Bronco Federal Credit Union is not responsible for the content or privacy practices of these other web sites.

In order for us to conduct the business of the credit union, we may disclose all of the information we collect to companies who perform marketing or other services on our behalf or to other financial institutions with whom we have joint marketing agreements so that we may provide members with competitive products and services. We may also disclose nonpublic personal information about your circumstances as permitted or required by law. These disclosures typically include information to process transactions on your behalf, conduct the operations of our credit union, and follow your instructions as you authorize, or protect the security of our financial records. However, Bronco does not collect information from children under 13. We are committed to preserving the privacy of our members.

We restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know that information to provide products or services to you. We maintain physical, electronic, or procedural safeguards that comply with federal regulations to guard your nonpublic personal information. Regular internet email is not secure. You should never provide information that is sensitive or confidential such as your social security number, account number or PIN numbers. We also ask that you do not send personal or account information through regular email.

In the event you have concerns or a problem arising with regard to our privacy practices, please refer to our privacy notice on our website. All other concerns should be directed to us in writing as follows:
